RAPPAHANNOCK Co., April 15 .- The laway, in style, finish, and general desirableness of dies of the Reformed Episcopal church bad an "Old Folks' Concert" on the nights of the 11th and 12th, for the benefit of the church. It was quite a success, as they cleared about $125. The beauty and elite of the county were present; the ladies were beautifully and handsomely dressed. Fore-most amongst them was Miss Lizzie Yates, daughter of Mr. James E. Yates, of Flint Hill. Her dress was of pink silk, white kid boots; her hair was dressed with three pink tinted ostrich tips; ornaments, diamonds. She played several very difficult pieces on the plane with ease and grace. Miss Nanthe plane with ease and grace. Miss Nannie Green, of Culpeper, was dressed in garnet velvet and satin. She sang "White Wings" and several other pieces with fine effect and artistic skill. She was encored several times. Miss Sarah Taylor, daughter of Dr. Taylor, of Cincinnati, sang the duet "The Gipsy Countess," with our handsome new doctor, Dr. Booten. They were dressed in costumes to represent a count and a gipsy meid. She created quite a sensation with her heauty and modesty. Miss Lena Leadbeater was dressed in a flowing role of garnet velvet, high back comb in her hair. garnet velvet, high back comb in her hair. She is a bright-eyed brunette, and the beauty of our county. She played on both the guitar and plano. Miss Nita Menifee, in the role of an "Old Lady in New York,"

Nies Spain played her part very well. Miss Susie Chelf, in light blue bunting and lace, played some very pretty pieces. Miss Kate Holland, in brocade satin, made in the fashion of "Auld Lang Syne," with her sparkling eyes, attracted much attention. A gentleeyes, attracted much attention. A gentle-man, Mr. T. W. L., dressed as Sambo, play-ed his part admirably and was quite a laughable feature. The performance opened with the tableau, "The Old Folks at Home." The stage was beautifully decorated and Mr. W. said a fourth member of the symposium. "Did you read that story in the Century war notes about the man whom presentiment told to jump just at the moment when a shell whizzed under his feet? Well, I witnessed something almost exactly on the same plan. The directors of a railroad had left a certain city to come to Pittsburg, traveling on a special car. Soon after their de-parture they discovered that they had left their Vice-President, so they had to go back after him. Welt, they made a second start, and soon were making rapid headway to-ward this city. On board were, among the rest, the superintendents of the eastern and western divisions of the road, respectively. The train was on the eastern division at the time, so that the superintendent of that portion of the road did not like it when his western colleague came to him and asked he replied, tersely. 'Are you sure?' asked the other. 'Certainly, I'm sure, sir, or I would not say so.' "The other superintendent left him, but came onek in a lew moments and said: 'Excuse me, sir, but tell me, are you certain you have your schedule all right?' 'Do you mean to insult me, sir?' replied the other. 'Don't you think I know my business? Of course I have my schedule.' TO THE HOLDERS

Virginia Consols and 10-40 Bonds We are authorized by the council of foreign bondholders to call the attention of holders of Virginia consols and 10 40s to the fact that the English bondholders are endeavoring, through the instrumentality of the council of foreign bond-holders, to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the data of Virginia holders, to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the debt of Virginia.

With this object in view, the English bondholders have, to a large extent, agreed to pool their bonds and have authorized the council of foreign bondholders to act for them in the negotiations which are about to be had between a commission sent out from Landon and a committee appointed by the Legislature of Virginia.

It is most desirable that all holders of Virginia bonds, both at home and aboad, should note in the effort to effect an early mittlement of the rate debt. To better accomplish this object the council of foreign bondholders canneatly request the holders of Virginia bonds and America to cooperate with them and to forward to cuselves their names and addresses, stating the amount of bonds hold, at as early a day as possible. bonds held at as early a day as possible.

We will be glid to furnish copies of the plan adopted by the English bondholders for pooling their bonds at London, and to give any other information that may be desired.
